Buchanan County Sheriff's Office had logged 23 hours for the month. Deputy Gallery reported calls for service were door knocking, parking, burglary but was actually cleaning crew, and intoxicated person.

Fire Chief, John Cook, reported the fire department had been on six medical calls and one accident call since the last meeting. The department had 13 residents participate in the Battery-Up Program held on November 1st. No BCEDC report. Streets & Sidewalks had no report but a councilperson had received a complaint of burning leaves on the street so Public Works would follow up. Nothing to report for Parks & Recreation, Property Maintenance, or MR WMA.

Public Works Director reported that water mains had been flushed, lift station cleaned, and pumps serviced. Five trees had been removed and he would be filling holes with dirt,
